

GT Hybrid Online Parent Class Winter 2011

- Course Title: Supporting Your Gifted Child
- Dates: January 24th – March 6th
- Format: Six weeks of online learning and discussion enriched with three face-to-face meetings. Participation in the face-to-face meetings is not mandatory, but strongly recommended.
- The Work: Each week suggested readings and explorations will be posted online followed by a related discussion question. Participants are expected to read whatever material is most relevant to them and to take part in the online discussions. Three optional face-to-face meetings will also take place during the course in order to go deeper with discussions and build community. A reasonable expectation of work time would be 2-3 hours per week.
- Materials: Some of the reading will come from the text book, A Parent's Guide to Gifted Children by James T. Webb. It is the responsibility of the participants to acquire the book. Text book readings will be supplemented with several links to articles, web sites, videos, etc. each week.
- Cost: The cost of the class is $65 per participant. Those interested in participating can e-mail Penelope Heinigk (pheinigk@jeffco.k12.co.us) or send payment with name of participant and e-mail address directly to:
